

The PLACE of MUSIC in a ROBUST THEOLOGY

Firbush Point Field Centre Loch Tay

13 – 15 June 2018 3.00 pm Wednesday – 2.00 pm Friday

Speakers

Prof Jeremy Begbie, Cambridge & USA, 4 sessions, “Music and Theology: what can they learn from each other?”

Dr Gary Deddo, USA, “Creation and Incarnation”

Dr Robert Walker, Edinburgh, “Torrance and the Incarnation of the Word”

Cost: Residential £140, (students and E.U. staff £120); E.U. students £110

Early bird discounts (15th April) £12

Day visitors (including meals) £35 (students £30)

Booking & enquiries: Bob Walker bob@hebrides.u-net.com 0131 228 6431

T.F. TORRANCE RETREAT

We lift up our hearts above and beyond the liturgy of earth and in breath-taking wonder and in indescribable joy.....

As this fragmentary and imperfect echo of the perfect liturgy and music of heaven, the sacramental liturgy of the church is at once an anticipation of the future, and yet an interim measure that will pass away.”